ROBERT DI BERNARDO, aka "D.B", is a soldier in the GAMBINO Family reporting directly to PAUL CASTELLANO. He is heavily involved in the pornography industry in the New York area as evidenced by his recent indictment in the MIPORN undercover operation. Enclosed are two FD-209's detailing an extortionate loan to L.I. businessman, JIM MILLWOOD, by DI BERNARDO and ROBERT MANCINI. It is recommended that a RICO (A) investigation be initiated in order to develop a prosecutable case against DI BERNARDO, MANCINI, and their "strong arm" collectors.

At one point in mid-March, MILWARD advised that two men came to his office while he was out. MILWARD advised that his secretary was frightened and that these men from Durban demanded payment for the cabinets in a threatening way. The men left a message to call [] at [] (DURBAN's phone).

Mr. JOHN ELLIOTT SIME was interviewed at his office, Environmental Collaborative, Incorporated, 2015 Park Street, Atlantic Beach, New York. Mr. SIME was advised of the nature of the interview.

Mr. SIME advised ⁷⁵⁴ he met BOB MANCINI when he was contracted to do a job for [redacted] Dittmas Management, 505 Chestnut Street, Cederhurst, New York, and Choice Carrier, 2 Park Avenue, city not mentioned. Mr. SIME said he went to Rochell Designs on Nelson Street to get the above two jobs contracted for office furnishings. Rochell could not do the job and recommended Durban for the job. SIME mentioned that he constantly had problems with MANCINI in that items were constantly delivered late with may excuses. In addition, when both of the above jobs were near completion, Durban did not do the finishing up work, leaving SIME with about $5,000 worth of work that needed completing.

SIME advised that at one time a building mistake was made by JIM MILWARD, the general contractor. Since he, SIME, was the designer of the job, he agreed to split the cost of the mistake with MILWARD. The mistake meant that Durban would have to reconstruct some of the office items already delivered. MILWARD's share of the mistake would be $3,500. MILWARD therefore owed MANCINI $3,500. SIME advised that MANCINI could have sent someone to MILWARD's office to collect this $3,500. SIME advised that MILWARD did pay this money eventually. SIME advised that [redacted] made a delivery to MILWARD and perhaps came on to Ostrong MILWARD's secretary and it sounded threatening to her.

SIME advised that he did know a [redacted] but that [redacted] is a contractor in Oceanside at telephone number (516) 678-1308. [redacted] not work for Durban however. SIME advised he did not recognize photograph of ROBERT DI BERNARDO but that the name was familiar. SIME also recalls that MANCINI did mention that DI BERNARDO was partners with him. SIME could not remember what DI BERNARDO's name came up, only that he was a partner.

b6

SIME advised that he last saw MANCINI about April 15, so. SIME advised he does not know a person named [redacted] Durban.

JAMES MILWARD - VICTIM

ReMMteletype, 6/18/81, entitled MIPORN.

Reliable source information received by BQMRA indicates that MANCINI mentioned above makes collections for DI BENARDO. One victim is MILWARD, a building contractor, and another is JOHN SIME, a building consultant. Although both MILWARD and SIME deny any contact with DI BENARDO, shortly after interviews, DI BENARDO's attorney contacted case agent and wanted to discuss the matter. Shortly thereafter, MANCINI voluntarily appeared at the BQMRA and was interviewed.

At this time, there is no concrete evidence to substantiate source allegations of a shylock loan, but indications are evident that the parties interviewed are not truthful. Investigation is continuing.

The Video Juke Box... a brand new concept in coin operated entertainment. Large profits can be made from the Video Juke Boxes, in fact, they can be shown to pay for themselves in a very short period of time.

Video Juke Boxes are easily installed, and can be connected to any large TV screen, existing monitors, or sound system.

HOW IT WORKS

★ The user deposits coins and makes a selection from an alpha numeric keyboard at hand height on the machine. One of the 36 music clips, stored on a tape within the machine is played.

When the Video Juke Box is not being used, a micro computer can automatically play advertisements.

★ A coin operated computerised micro-processor allows a music clip to be selected and played from anywhere on a 1/2" VHS Video Tape.

★ Monthly tape hire changeover of 36 current popular, golden oldies and country & western video music clips available.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

Large profits can be made from the Video Juke Box.

Video Juke Boxes can be located in areas where people will deposit a coin to view a music clip on video tape.

Commercials can be included to be shown before each selected music clip is played, as an extra revenue earner for you.

each machine is to be used—as a free service or revenue earner, with or without coin operation, with or without commercials. The style of music can be decided by the owner to suit the site chosen for each Video Juke Box.

IT'S JUST LIKE YOUR OWN TELEVISION STATION

The Video Juke Box can be programmed to operate in various modes.

The owner of the machine can decide how

ROBERT DIBERNARDO, also known as DB, (made member of the GAMBINO LCN family, and who is presently awaiting (10/81) sentencing in Miami for a recent Interstate transportation of Obscene Matter conviction) is the owner of the Southwest Nassau County based GREAT BEAR automotive repair centers franchise with its main office located at 31 Frost Lane, Lawrence, NY., and has become increasingly concerned that he will be sentenced to more jail time than the one year he had been expecting. DB had control over the GAMBINO interests in the NYC pornography business under the name of STAR DISTRIBUTORS LTD., 150 Lafayette St., NYC.

DB is presently attempting to put as much of his money into real property in order to have those assets available when he is released from prison. DB has reached out for people he feels he can trust in order to establish GREAT BEAR franchises which he will back and hold the mortgage on the property.

DB feels that he cannot fully trust the people whom he has been dealing with, i.e. ROBERT MANCINI, who has been attempting to establish his own sources of income and who has come under investigation by the FBI. MANCINI believes that he is being surveilled, his phones are tapped and that he will soon be arrested. He believes that people who he has recently put pressure on for loan repayments may have gone to the FBI. However, MANCINI is still collecting vig payments for DB's shylock loans. And, DB's GREAT BEAR attorney, name not recalled, who has been attempting to secure his own interests in GREAT BEAR if DB has to serve jail time.

Battle on Eighth Ave.

Area priest fights top pornographer

By ALEX MICHELINI

The Rev. Robert Rappleyea near Show World Center.

There is a war going on on the West Side of Manhattan, centered near the intersection of Eighth Ave. and 42d St. The conflict involves a feisty Roman Catholic priest and the city's biggest pornographer. Thus far, the multi-millionaire pornbroker has been winning the battles, but the pastor of Holy Cross Church vows he will win the war.

When the children of Holy Cross parochial school go on field trips, the teachers always take them on a long, roundabout route to the subways—avoiding the sleaze of Richard Basciano's Show World Center, the city's biggest porn mill.

"It's degrading and dehumanizing," says the Rev. Robert Rappleyea, pastor of the church, which was built on W. 42d St. in 1876.

Often, the mothers of students are subjected to taunts—even propositions—from the human spillage of the sex shop, he says. As a result, the spunky priest is leading a parents' war against the smut belt—in particular the Show World Center at the corner of 42d St. and Eighth Ave.

"WE'RE GOING TO FIGHT HIM (Basciano) any way we can," Rappleyea vows. "We'll picket. We'll march. We'll do anything we can to get him out of here."

The main target of Rappleyea's arrows is Basciano, New York's biggest pornbroker. He owns, operates or deals with six of the busiest "sex supermarkets" in the Times Square area—Show World Center, Les Gals, 136 W. 42d St.; Adultarama, 711 Seventh Ave.; Show Palace de Paris, 670 Eighth Ave.; Pussy Cat Showcase, 1605 Broadway, and E&A Books (formerly The Joy), 244-48 W. 42d St.

Whatever pornography stands for, they've got it all—private booths for films and live peep shows, adult books (including "a good selection of fetish and hard-core periodicals," according to ads), sex aid and rubber goods counters and live sex shows with themes that include lesbianism, sadomasochism and bondage-and-discipline.

THERE ARE NO PUBLIC RECORDS to show how much Basciano's empire rakes in, but porn-watchers roughly estimate it could be as high as $10 million a year. His operations chief, Roger Kirschner, says 4,000 people pass through the Show World turnstiles every day—and it is open every day of the year.

Basciano occupies center stage among New York's pornbrokers—John Zeffarano and Martin Hodas are among the other biggies. But he shares it with at least three partners—Theodore Rothstein of Oceanside, L.I., Robert DiBernardo of Hewlett Harbor, L.I., and Nathan Grama of Lawrence, L.I., according to official documents.

Rothstein and DiBernardo—both identified by authorities as "associates" of organized-crime families—were convicted of transporting obscene materials across state lines as a result of an FBI roundup in Florida. They now are fighting to stay out of jail. In 1968, Basciano pleaded guilty to mail-fraud charges in Baltimore for peddling newspaper coupons to grocers. He was fined $750 and placed on three years probation.

HIS NAME POPPED INTO PUBLIC VIEW here last month in an eye-opening deal in which he and another Show World figure—Wallace Katz of Irvington, N.J.—co-signed a $85,000 loan from the Small Business Administration for one of the fistful of corporations and partnerships that make up the pornbroker sex-exchange and apartment-office empire. Basciano insists the money went for improvements in the upper-floor apartment portion of the Show World building—not the lower-floor porn caverns.

"It's a disgrace," declared Rappleyea. "Our forefathers never intended that the First Amendment protect perversion."

Basciano's empire is protected by the First Amendment, and defended by superstar lawyer Herald Price Fähringer of Claus von Bulow fame. An attempt by the city to shut down Show World for building violations failed, and the periodic obscenity and disorderly person arrests by police result in little more than token fines (there have been 279 convictions since 1975).

And the recent ruling by an acting Manhattan Supreme Court justice requiring more evidence from police prior to obscenity arrests will make them even scarcer in the future. Deputy Police Commissioner Kenneth Conboy said, "The court's decision will make it exceedingly difficult to enforce the law against blatant, live obscene performances."

"I'M NOT AN ANGEL," SAYS the graying, curly-haired 57-year old Basciano. "I'm not sprouting wings, but I'll argue that this business is not a detriment to the community."

A fight buff (he was a "gym fighter"), Basciano is a rigid disciple of physical fitness. He still jogs every day, and he boxes six to eight rounds in his own, well-equipped gym in the Show World building, which he opens free to developing young fighters. He proudly talks of his rise from the streets of Baltimore, where he hawked newspapers as a boy. He then drove cabs and went on to run newspaper distribution routes before buying a restaurant. Recently, he faced heavyweight Scott LeDoux in a charity bout for the Toys for Tots campaign.

Fifteen years ago, he says, he came to New York and began his association with Rothstein and DiBernardo.

"I'm just a plain type of guy," he says. "I got lucky. I don't flaunt it. I don't look up or down at a person. I look at a person."

He is easily worth millions. He owns a gym-equipped home in suburban Glen Burnie, Md., drives a silver Mercedes and maintains an apartment and a private sauna-equipped office in the Show World building.

"I became successful late in life," he says. "But you get a lot of hurt and a lot of scars because I'm in a sensitive industry."

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Report. It is hereby alleged:

a. On or about September 21, 1981 Great Bear Auto Centers, Inc. (Great Bear) submitted an application to register its franchise prospectus pursuant to the provisions of General Business Law Article 33. The application was made to the New York State Department of Law (G.B.L. sec. 683.1.) Bureau of Investor Protection and Securities (N.Y.C.R.R. sec. 200.3 (b)).

b. Routine inquiries disclosed that the President of Great Bear, Robert Di Bernardo, was found guilty of the crimes of interstate transportation and sale of obscene matters and conspiracy to commit these crimes (18 U.S.C. 1462, 1465 and 371). He was sentenced on December 7, 1981 as follows:

Total sentence of 5 yrs. and a $10,000 committed fine with 5 yrs. probation to commence upon completion of the period of confinement and a $2,500 fine to be paid at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The sentence as to each count is as follows: COUNT I:

Sentenced to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of 2 yrs. or until otherwise discharged by due process of law and is to pay a fine of $5,000.

COUNT III: Committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of 18 months or until otherwise discharged by due process of law to run consecutively with the sentence imposed in Count I and is to pay a fine of $2,500. COUNT V:

Committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for a period of 18 months or until otherwise discharged by due process of law to run consecutively with sentence imposed in Count I & III & pay a fine of $2,500. COUNT VII: Imposition of sentence is suspended and defendant is placed on 5 yrs. probation to commence upon release from confinement; Special Condition of probation are: Payment of a fine of $2,500 within the first yr. of probation or anytime prior to commencement of probation and the defendant is not to participate in any form or fashion which could be determined by this Court to constitute violation of his probation by using any type of carrier for interstate transportation of material deemed obscene or to aid or abet in the transportation of such material for any purpose to the State of Florida. COUNTS

II, IV, AND VI: Imposition of sentence is hereby suspended and defendant placed on probation for 5 yrs. per count with same special conditions applying as imposed in Count VII. Sentence as to each of these counts is to run concurrently with sentence imposed in COUNT VII. Defendant is permitted to

c. Trafficking in obscene matters is a crime of moral turpitude. Those who commit it appeal to the baser instincts of man and seek to corrupt and frequently corrupt the morals of the public in the course of their dealings. Dealers in obscene matters display qualities which are the enemies of honesty and fair dealing, the latter being characteristic of a healthy commerce. The smut dealer trades in products which are condemned by the law and employs methods designed to avoid its prohibitions. As such it is reasonable to conclude that a person who has been convicted of a felony involving the sale of obscene matters would not be bound by moral and legal constraints in his commercial dealings. Robert Di Bernardo is the President of Great Bear and has been convicted of the interstate transportation and sale of obscene matters and conspiracy to commit those crimes, therefore his involvement in the sale or management of franchises would create an unreasonable risk to prospective franchisees.

d. Robert Di Bernardo is active in organized crime. He is a member of the Carlo Gambino family, headed by Paul Castalano and reports directly to that person. He contributes a portion of his earnings to his organization and enjoys its protection. As such his involvement in the management and sale of franchises would create an unreasonable risk to prospective franchisees.

e. A review of Great Bear's franchise prospectus reveals certain omissions which are consistent with the view that his participation is a risk. He failed to disclose his conviction after he was sentenced in December, 1981, until April 1982, and during that time offered Great Bear franchises and made one sale. He failed to disclose his employment with Great Bear Auto Centers International, Inc. of North Miami, Florida, that he was its President in 1980, and that the corporation was dissolved in 1981. He failed to disclose his affiliation with a company known as Star Distributors, of New York City. Instead Great Bear's amended prospectus dated April 30, 1982 states (P. 13) that Mr. Di Bernardo is responsible for the franchisor's day to day operations and the general supervision of all of its activities, thus implying that he devoted full time to his position.

Recommendations: Based upon the foregoing report it is the recommendation of the undersigned that Great Bear's application to register its prospectus as amended be denied and that it be refused registration.

Dear Mr. Mack:

Pursuant to Article 33 of the New York General Business Law, this office has moved to deny the application of Great Bear Auto Centers, Inc. to register its franchise prospectus based on the fact that Robert Di Bernardo has been convicted of a felony. We have alleged that his involvement in the sale or management of franchises creates an unreasonable risk to prospective franchisees.

In the administrative proceeding which seeks to bar Di Bernardo certain allegations are made about the nature of the crime for which he was convicted, affiliations he has with organized crime, and certain entities he is associated with and which he failed to disclose in his franchise prospectus, including Star Distributors, Ltd. The report which is the basis for the administrative proceeding has been amended to include other allegations relating to the connection between organized crime and pornography, the association of Di Bernardo with the De Calvacante family, and numerous additional entities with which Di Bernardo is associated, but which he failed to disclose in his franchise prospectus.

We now seek the assistance of your office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation in furnishing us with further information, as well as providing witnesses to testify regarding Di Bernardo.

After Di Bernardo's conviction in Florida, a Fatico hearing was held at which agents of the F.B.I. testified. It would be helpful to us if these agents, as well as other agents including two who participated in the surveillance of Mr. Di Bernardo but did not testify, were able to provide us with information, as well as testify in our proceeding.

We would make every effort to insure that information regarded as confidential would be protected and I am sure that this end could be achieved. In this regard, it is helpful to note that three New York City Police Officers have testified in our proceeding without having to jeopardize their sources and, in fact, the testimony of one of them was admitted although he refused to turn over internal police department reports. I am confident that similar procedures would be followed with regard to F.B.I. personnel who assist us.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Very truly yours,

[redacted]

GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC., charges an initial one time only Franchise Fee of Fifteen ($15,000) Thousand Dollars, which is payable upon the execution of the Franchise Agreement. This $15,000 Franchise Fee must be paid in full or in certain qualified cases, the franchisor may finance a portion of said fee for a short term.

GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC. ("The Franchisor") was organized under laws of the State of New York on February 14th, 1972, to engage in the business of franchising automotive aftermarket car care centers, each center to be known as a "GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER" specializing in Front-End, Shock Absorbers, Brakes, Alignment, Exhaust Systems and Up Repairs. The Franchisor's principal office is located at 31 Frost Lane, Lawrence, New York. The Franchisor does not do business under any other name.

PREDECESSORS:

From 1933 to about January of 1953, a number of family-related individuals, were in the alignment and front-end auto repair business operating in the New York Area. In January of 1953, the Service Mark "GREAT BEAR" was adopted. From 1953 to February of 1966, each of the family-owned auto repair shops continued to operate as "GREAT BEAR" under the broad, general supervision of GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY, which as a result of unanimous approval, was responsible for co-operative advertising and for warehousing and distribution of automotive parts and inventory to the various "GREAT BEAR" auto repair shops. On February 10th, 1966, GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY registered "a smiling head and chest of a bear holding a sign with the legend "GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY" in NEW YORK STATE under Registration Number R9414. On August 9th, 1967, this same logo was registered in the State of New Jersey, and on September 28th, 1967 in the State of Connecticut. GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY, INC. was incorporated in the State of New York on May 6th, 1965. From about February of 1965 to December of 1973, GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY, INC. expanded its business by the franchising of a number of additional GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTERS in the Metropolitan New York Area. On July 26th, 1973, GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY, INC. conveyed its Franchise Business together with the good will of such franchise business and all of its rights, title, interest and obligations to all then existing GREAT BEAR Franchise Agreements to GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC. and GREAT BEAR TIRE COMPANY, INC. agreed not to compete with GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC. in the franchising of GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTERS.

Neither the Franchisor nor its predecessors has ever sold any franchises except for GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER franchises.

The Franchises to be offered in the State of New York will grant to the Franchisee the right to own and operate a GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER in the method prescribed by the Franchisor. The services offered by a GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER are used by the general public for automotive aftermarket car care.

GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER Franchisees must compete in the offering of these automotive car care services with gasoline stations, tire shops, discount store auto repair shops, department store auto repair shops and other automotive repair shops similar to those of the Franchisor. The Franchisee's business will be characterized by competition from various sources, but with the aid of the excellently prepared co-operative advertising which appears in printed media, e.g. NEW YORK TIMES, NEWSDAY and NEWARK STAR LEDGER, Franchisees will be in a position to attract business from the general public as well as the wholesale market who are interested in having their automobiles, vans and trucks repaired by experts, quickly and at low prices.

Since its Incorporation in 1972, the Principals of the Franchisor, GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC. have owned and operated as many as eighteen GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTERS in the Metropolitan New York Area. However, during the period from December of 1976 to August of 1977, all of these GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTERS were sold together with a GREAT BEAR Franchise Agreement and are now operating as such.

5. FRANCHISEE'S INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE OR OTHER INITIAL PAYMENT:

The initial Franchise Fee, which fee is uniform for all Franchisees, is FIFTEEN THOUSAND ($15,000) DOLLARS and is payable upon the execution of the Franchise Agreement. This FIFTEEN THOUSAND ($15,000) DOLLAR Franchise Fee must be paid in full or in certain qualified situations, the Franchisor may finance a portion of said Franchise Fee for a short term at a mutually agreed upon interest rate.

The Franchise Fee is not refundable.

The Franchisor will use such sum as an addition to working capital.

6. OTHER FEES:

After the payment of the initial Franchise Fee, the Franchisee is required to pay to the Franchisor, throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement, as a royalty, a sum equal to five (5%) per cent of the gross amount of all sales, exclusive of sales tax, of all products and merchandise sold and services performed at the Franchisee's GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER. A statement setting forth the total of such sales shall be furnished, executed by the President, a general partner or the Individual Franchisee, whichever is applicable, not later than ten (10) days after the close of each month and said statement shall be accompanied by a check in the amount of the royalty therein provided for.

The Franchisee shall be required to make the aforesaid payments notwithstanding the fact that there may be a surplus of funds in the co-operative advertising account, known as GREAT BEAR ADVERTISING ESCROW ACCOUNT. Franchisee shall pay such advertising fees on or before each Tuesday in each week during the entire term of the Franchise Agreement. The Franchisor shall have sole control over the form of the Advertising Program to be instituted. Nothing contained herein shall require the Franchisor to do so. Such period will not be greater than six months.

It should be noted that the work experience of Franchisor's Instructors will range from five to ten years of automotive after-market car care service and experience, including the years spent as a Manager or the Owner/Operator of a GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER. Franchisor's obligations as set forth in Franchise Agreement will be found at Page 3 Paragraph 3 (a) (b) (c) (d) (e) and (f), Page 4 Paragraph 4 and Page 4 Paragraph 5 of the GREAT BEAR Franchise Agreement.

12. EXCLUSIVE AREA OR TERRITORY:

The GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER Franchise Agreement provides that the Franchisor will not grant a Franchise Agreement to another GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER Franchisee or open a competing Franchisor owned GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER within a specific geographical or territorial area surrounding the Franchise granted. The size and extent of the said geographical or territorial area is a subject of negotiation between the Franchisor and the Franchisee and is always based upon the specific location to be approved, population density and population demographics among other factors. Upon execution of the GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER Franchise Agreement, a written description along with a map of the exclusive geographical or territorial area will be made a part of the Franchise Agreement.

GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC., the Franchisor, has not presently formulated any plans or policies, to operate or franchise the operation of any business, selling or leasing, under different names or tradenames, goods or services, similar to or competitive with those to be offered for sale or lease to the Franchisee. The continuation of an exclusive territory does not depend on the maintenance of a particular sales volume.

13. TRADEMARKS, SERVICE MARKS, TRADE NAMES, LOGOTYPES AND COMMERCIAL SYMBOLS:

Each GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER Franchisee, pursuant to its Franchise Agreement, is given the right to use the name "GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER," a Service Mark which has been registered by the United States Patent Office, Registration Number 1,033,280, on February 10th, 1976, and was duly registered on that date in the Patent and Trademark Office on the PRINCIPAL REGISTER. The Service Mark "GREAT BEAR" was issued to GREAT BEAR AUTOMOTIVE CENTERS, INC., a New York Corporation, whose address at that time was 827 Remsen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11236; FOR: Services consisting of the repair of Automobiles such as Wheel Balancing, Alignment, Brake Repair and the like in Class 37 (U.S. CL. 103). First use January 1953; in Commerce January 1953. Ser. No. 36,127 filed November 1st, 1974. A copy of such United States Patent Office Service Mark follows this ITEM.

Each GREAT BEAR AUTO CENTER Franchisee must use such name and mark, to wit: "GREAT BEAR," in full compliance with the rules and regulations prescribed from time to time by the Franchisor. The Franchisee is prohibited from using such name and mark or any part of such name and mark as part of any corporate name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols. Franchisee shall be permitted to utilize the Franchisor's logo, which is a cartoon characterization of a smiling bear, that includes a bear's head and chest, and which logo may be found interspaced between the words of the Service Mark "GREAT" and "BEAR." This GREAT BEAR logo has been used extensively in all of GREAT BEAR's co-operative advertising, both in printed media as well as in television and on all printed stationery, envelopes, cards, invoices and statements. A sample of the Franchisor's Service Mark and logo are as follows:

[redacted] ability to assure Amalgamated Workers Union 88 employees of labor peace is due in part to his strong ties to organized crime members or associates. Employees with little or no real union representation from Local 88 are able to keep other neighboring unions from legitimately organizing their shops. [redacted] is very close to organized crime associate [redacted]

When IRVING GROSSMAN, [redacted] (GROSSMAN died in 1982) ran into problems with other unions he often went to [redacted] for help. This relationship continues today and it is possible [redacted] is the real force behind this relatively small union.

Local 88 has contracts with numerous Great Bear automobile repair shops throughout the New York Metropolitan area. Source believes that a number of these Great Bear shops are actually owned by ROBERT DI BERNARDO, while the listed owners merely run the shops for DI BERNARDO. These people who own their own shops are aware of DI BERNARDO's organized crime status, in fact several owners are close to DI BERNARDO and may assist him in other illegal activities, such as loansharking. DI BERNARDO purchased his sole interest in Great Bear in 1981 from [redacted] and [redacted] the original founders of the Great Bear chain.

Source believes [redacted] is presently living in Florida. Source heard rumors that [redacted] gambled and may have owed DI BERNARDO a lot of money, which helps to explain the transfer of full ownership to DI BERNARDO. Source believes the transfer of ownership may not have been for fair market value.

The Gambino LCN Family has long maintained control over Teamsters 282 and now that it is apparent that convicted labor racketeer JOHN CODY, the President of 282 will be going to jail, PAUL CASTELLANO, the Boss of the Gambino Family is very interested in insuring that their control is not lost or weakened in any way as a result of CODY's incarceration.

Gambino Soldier ROBERT DI BERNARDO, also known as D.B., is CASTELLANO's main contact man with [redacted] Secretary-Treasurer of 282, who is in line to succeed CODY as President of Local 282. D.B. and [redacted] meet on a regular basis at a diner on Northern Boulevard in Queens, name of diner unknown, however believed to be close-by [redacted] residence in Flushing. D.B. has contacts with a number of general contractors and there is one in Brooklyn, identity unknown, who D.B. has been pushing a lot of construction business toward and who in turn is paying off [redacted]

When [redacted] takes over as the head of 282, he is considering making FNU [redacted] his Vice President and [redacted] will take over the position [redacted] vacates, that of Secretary-Treasurer.

CASTELLANO is not in total agreement with this plan and has instructed D.B. to try and convince [redacted] to make Staten Island delegate [redacted] either the Secretary-Treasurer or the Vice President and then make 282 shop steward Gambino Soldier [redacted] the Staten Island delegate. [redacted] however, has reportedly told Gambino Capo TOMM BILOTTI that he does not want the job, even if [redacted] does take over one of the top spots.

Zaccaro zapped with porn warehouse rap

A SPOKESMAN for Democratic vice presidential nominee Geraldine Ferraro said yesterday he had "no information" on published reports that a building managed by her husband's real estate firm houses a pornography distribution center.

"It's our understanding that it is some type of a storage facility," the spokesman said, adding that he believes John Zaccaro's firm "manages" the building at 200 Lafayette St.

The spokesman added that as far as he knew, Zaccaro has no knowledge of precisely what is stored there.

Yesterday's New York Tribune report about the building with ties to Zaccaro identified an office at 200 Lafayette St. as the shipping center for Star Distributors, which is located down the street at 150 Lafayette St.

The New York Times has identified Star Distributors as one of the biggest distributors of pornographic papers nationwide.

The Times also has reported that the vice president of Star Distributors, Robert DiBernardo, is listed by New York City police as a member of the crime family headed by Sam DeCavalcante, based in New Jersey.

Ferraro lists herself as a shareholder and secretary-treasurer of her husband's firm.

The Zaccaro firm declined to answer questions about the property and referred all inquiries to Ferraro campaign spokesman Scott Widmeyer.

City records show that Zaccaro's firm, P. Zaccaro & Co., receives the tax bills for 200 Lafayette St.

A spokesman for the city Finance Dept. said a review found that at least one tax check for the building was written by Zaccaro's firm.

The building's taxes are essentially up to date, with $390 owed for inspection charges, water and sewer taxes, The Post found.

Meanwhile, Ferraro said yesterday she will release full details on her husband's financial holdings as well as her own within 25 days to the Federal Election Commission.

Ferraro, who didn't disclose her husband's holdings to the House ethics committee during her three terms in Congress, said she'll include them now because "my husband and I believe it is in the public interest to do so and because the office of Vice President is one of high public trust."

Zaccaro May Oust Tenant

The Associated Press

John A. Zaccaro, husband of vice-presidential candidate Geraldine Ferraro, may try to evict a reputed pornography distributor that rents space in a Manhattan building he manages, Zaccaro's real estate company said yesterday.

Zaccaro has asked his lawyers to investigate reports that police have linked the tenant, Bo-Na-Te, to organized crime and pornography, according to a statement issued last night by Scott Widmeyer, a spokesman for Ferraro, a Democratic congresswoman from Queens.

Zaccaro "has no knowledge of the exact use of the two floors rented in the building," said the statement from P. Zaccaro & Co. Inc. "Mr. Zaccaro has asked his attorneys that if any of the allegations are true, that immediate action be taken to terminate [the lease of] the company," it said.

The first report on the Zaccaro-managed building came in a story published Tuesday by the New York Tribune.

Before yesterday's statement, Widmeyer answered questions on the building at 200 Lafayette St. by saying that details of Zaccaro's finances would be included in a campaign report being prepared by Ferraro, who is an officer and shareholder in her husband's company.

Bo-Na-Te has been linked by investigators to organized crime through Star Distributors Ltd., described as its affiliate and as one of the nation's largest pornography distributors.

A 1971 report by the state Commission of Investigation calls Bo-Na-Te "a local distributor of sex-oriented books and magazines" affiliated with Star, whose officers included a reputed organized crime leader, Robert DiBernardo.

Ferraro firm tied to major smut distributor

P. Zaccaro Co. refuses comment

Candidate also silent, is company executive

Democratic vice presidential nominee Geraldine Ferraro has declined to comment on the alleged connection of her husband's real-estate company to a Manhattan building described by police as an organized crime-controlled distribution center of pornographic literature.

Employees of the real-estate firm, P. Zaccaro & Co., of 218 Lafayette St., who refused to divulge their names, told the New York Tribune the company has no connection with the building at 200-202 Lafayette St.

However, New York City records reveal that P. Zaccaro & Co. pays the taxes for the owner of the building and has been cited for building violations on the property.

In addition, the building superintendent confirmed that the company is the real-estate agent for the building. Ferraro is a stockholder and the secretary-treasurer of P. Zaccaro & Co.

The building houses the distribution headquarters of Star Enterprises, Media Distributors and Bonate Inc., all described by police as among the leading U.S. wholesale suppliers of pornographic magazines and newspapers. According to law-enforcement officials, the companies are run by Robert (Debe) Di Bernardo, who directs distribution of pornography for the Gambino and DeCavalcante organized-crime families.

New York City records show that the Zaccaro company, which is headed by Ferraro's husband, John, pays the taxes on the seven-story building, located in a run-down neighborhood at the corner of Lafayette and Broome streets. The building is $22,100 in arrears on its taxes.

John Zaccaro also is cited by the

According to the large sign (inset) hung on the fire escape on the right side of this building at 200 Lafayette St., John Zaccaro, husband of Democratic vice-presidential candidate Geraldine Ferraro, is the rental agent. The building houses the offices of Star Distributors, reportedly one of the largest wholesale suppliers of pornography in the nation.

City as responsible for correcting building violations on the property. The 1982 violations, which included non-existent exit lights and a faulty elevator, were corrected.

The "For Rent" signs of the Zaccaro company are displayed on several floors of the building. The building superintendent, James Johnson, said the firm is seeking tenants for a store on the ground floor.

Connection denied

An officer at P. Zaccaro & Co., said the firm has "nothing to do with that property. We are just listing the store." He claimed that the building containing the store, 200-202 Lafayette St., is "not the same building" as the property where Star Enterprises is located (418 Broome St.) However, City records indicate the two addresses are the same building. The Lafayette Street entrance is barred by a locked gate; the Broome Street entrance is open.

Manny Lerman, a partner in Melro Co., the owner of the building, refused to comment on the connection of the Zaccaro company to the building.

The building at 200-202 Lafayette St. is on the same block as the Zaccaro real-estate headquarters. Tenants include a wholesale electronics supplier, a Chinese sweatshop, and the fifth-floor shipping headquarters of Star Distributors Ltd. Star Distributors business office is in the next block at 150

Lafayette St.

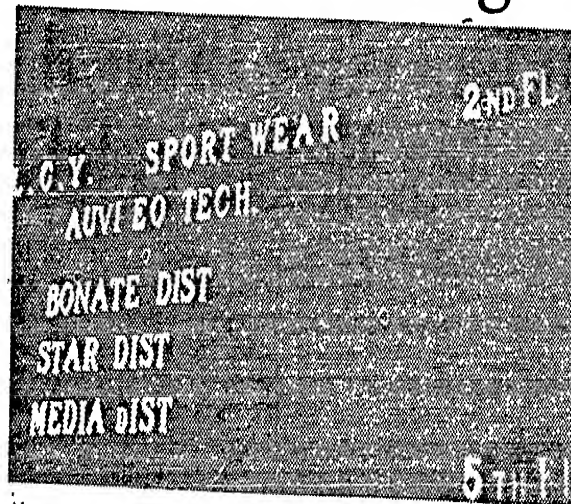

A press spokesman for the Ferraro campaign refused to discuss the Zaccaro company or its link to the building at 200-202 Lafayette St. He said records would be made public in 2 weeks.

Police say most hard-core pornographic books and newspapers are distributed nationally by Star Distributors. The firm is the wholesaler for Al Goldstein's Screw, a weekly with a circulation of 85,000, as well as for magazines with such names as Pleasure, Smut, Hot Stuff, Hooker, Whips and Chains and San Francisco Ball.

"Star is one of the biggest distributors," said Pat Casey, director of the California Attorney General's Bureau of Organized Crime and Criminal Intelligence. "They are even branching out into films and international distribution."

The officers of Star Distributors are Theodore Rothstein, president, and Robert DiBernardo, vice president. DiBernardo is listed by the New York Police Department and the Justice Department as a member of the Sam DeCavalcante organized-crime family of New Jersey. He also is listed as a close associate of Ettore Zappi, capo of the New York Gambino family. "DiBernardo was in charge of distribution of pornography for the two families," Casey said.

"Star originally was operated by Theodore Rothstein," a report of the New York State Investigation Commission said. "It was a failing firm . . . However, Star's financial position and credit rating suddenly improved, and it began receiving merchandise on consignment.

Along with this financial change came a new corporate officer, Robert DiBernardo. It was also clear, according to one witness, that in all subsequent business transactions, DiBernardo had the 'last word' at Star."

Star also acquired about six pornographic bookstores in New York and a chain of bookstores in Philadelphia, the report said. "A main beneficiary of this expansion and the subsequent increase in profits was organized crime."

A woman who answered the telephone at Star Distributors confirmed that the loft at 202 Lafayette St. was used for packing and shipping of newspapers.

New York City housing records list 20 properties owned or managed by Zaccaro.

Ferraro and her husband have declined to discuss his business, raising concern among some House Democratic leaders. Despite the insistence of Ferraro that she does not have to disclose details of her husband's finances, some Democratic leaders have urged full disclosure immediately.

Under the Financial Disclosure Act of 1978, members of Congress are required to list holdings of their spouses unless they do not derive any economic benefit from those holdings. Rep. George Hansen, R-Idaho, for instance, was convicted recently of filing false income-tax statements because he had not listed his wife's financial holdings.

Listed her holdings

In her latest financial disclosure to the House of Representatives, Ferraro listed herself as secretary-treasurer of P. Zaccaro & Co. She indicated that her holdings were between $5,001 and $15,000. Ferraro did not list the assets of her husband, who is principal of the company founded by his father in 1935.

Ferraro has not explained how, as secretary-treasurer of her husband's company, she does not derive any economic benefit from Zaccaro's assets.

Ferraro's link to porn site admitted Realty signs removed at 200 Lafayette St.

By Peter Klebnikov
NEW YORK TRIBUNE STAFF

A spokesman for Geraldine Ferraro admitted yesterday that a firm owned by her husband manages a building described by police as an organized crime-controlled distribution center of pornography. At the site, 200-202 Lafayette St., yesterday, all six signs advertising Zaccaro & Co. and John A. Zaccaro as the rental agent had been removed, apparently in response to a copyrighted article published in the New York Tribune on Tuesday. The article reported links between Star Distributors, one of the tenants of the building, and two organized-crime families. Scott Widmeyer, a spokesman for Ferraro, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, said that neither the candidate nor any other officers of the real-estate firm at 118 Lafayette St. headed by her husband, John Zaccaro, had any knowledge of what the building down the block at 200-202 Lafayette St. was used for. Ferraro is secretary-treasurer of the real estate agency and a shareholder. Employees at P. Zaccaro & Co. originally told the Tribune the company is not involved with the dilapidated seven-story building. "We know nothing about that building," said an officer of the company who would not give his name. "We are just listing the name." (see FERRARO, page 14A)

[first-floor] store."

However, an investigation of New York City records revealed that the Zaccaro firm pays taxes for the owner of the building, Melro Co., and is responsible for correcting building violations on the property. The firm is also the real-estate agent for the building.

Widmeyer acknowledged links between P. Zaccaro & Co., and the building. "It is my understanding that John Zaccaro manages the building," he said. The spokesman emphasized that "nobody at John Zaccaro's company has any idea what the building is used for. We understand there is a storage facility there." Widmeyer said he had been told by New York police that the tenants of the building had "no ties to organized crime."

The fifth floor of the building is occupied by Star Distributors, Media Distributors and Bonate Inc., all described by police as some of the leading distributors of hard-core pornography in the nation. Police say the companies are run by Robert "Debe" Di Bernardo, who reportedly directs the distribution of pornography for the Gambino and DeCavalcante organized-crime families.

'Branching out'

"Star is one of the biggest distributors of pornography," said Pat Casey, director of the California Attorney General's Bureau of Organized Crime and Criminal Intelligence. "They are even branching out into films and international distribution."

In a 1975 interview with the New York Times, Al Goldstein, the publisher of Screw, said his tabloid was distributed nationally by Star Distributors. Police say the company also distributes magazines with such names as Pleasure, Smut, Hot Stuff, Hooker, Whips and Chains and San Francisco Ball, and owns six pornographic bookstores in the Times Square area.

The officers of Star Distributors are Theodore Rothstein, president and Robert Di Bernardo, vice president. Di Bernardo is listed by the New York Police Department and the Justice Department as a member of the Sam DeCavalcante organized-crime family of New Jersey. He also is listed as a "close associate" of Ettore Zappi, capo of the New York Gambino family. "Di Bernardo was in charge of distribution of pornography for the two families," said Casey.

A woman who answered the phone at Star Distributors confirmed that the loft at 200-202 Lafayette St. was used for packing and shipping newspapers.

'Bordering on absurd'

Asked about Ferraro's reaction to the link between the Zaccaro company and the building occupied by a distributor of pornography, Widmeyer said, "We are bordering on the absurd with these nit-picking questions."

Widmeyer said the candidate has been a "strong supporter of federal statutes prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children." In May, the congresswoman, from Forest Hills, Queens, supported a child-protection act to strengthen the penalties for producing and distributing sexually explicit material involving children.

On July 10, 1984, SANDY MOORE, owner of THE LITTLE VIDEO, 486 Merrick Road, Oceanside, New York (NY), after being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the purpose of the interview, provided the following information:

MOORE advised that he has known ROBERT DI BERNARDO, also known as (aka) D. B. for 10 years. Approximately seven years ago, MOORE was a partner of DI BERNARDO in the PIN GAME OPERATING COMPANY, 2780 Merrick Road, Bellmore, NY, which dealt with coin operated video amusement games.

During the 1970's MOORE and his partner AL SEABAR went to England, Spain and Italy to purchase antique slot machines. When MOORE and SEABAR returned to the United States (US) with approximately 40 machines, the Nassau County District Attorney's Office arrested MOORE and SEABAR for possession of illegal slot machines. The Nassau County District Attorney's Office confiscated approximately $25,000.00 worth of slot machines. MOORE and SEABAR were both fined $500.00 and received suspended sentences. ROBERT DI BERNARDO invested $79,000.00 in this venture, $50,000.00 of his own money and $29,000.00 that he borrowed from the LONG ISLAND TRUST COMPANY in Garden City, NY.

MOORE advised that he paid back approximately one half of the $79,000.00 to DI BERNARDO. MOORE stated that DI BERNARDO only wanted his principal back and that he (DI BERNARDO) charged no interest. MOORE advised that he told DI BERNARDO that he (MOORE) went out of business and stopped paying him about two years ago. MOORE stated that he has not seen DI BERNARDO since that time.

MOORE advised that DI BERNARDO never threatened MOORE and that he (DI BERNARDO) has no financial interest in THE LITTLE VIDEO, which he has operated for the last two to two and one half years.
